

SURPRISE REUNION . . . Bill Leyden, host of "It Could Be You," surprised Mrs. Barbara Crew, 2036 Cathy Way, when he reunited her with her mother, Mrs. Henrietta Rush of Amesbury, Mass. The local woman had not seen her mother in more than six years and the TV show had Mrs. Rush flown to Hollywood for the reunion.

TV Program Arranges for Surprises

More than 150 members of Nativity School Mothers' Club and their guests gathered at Studio D, KRCA, Jan. 17 to participate in the television show, "It Could Be You."

Those surprised by appearances on the show were Mrs. Andrew Janasik, Mrs. H. L. Loomis, Mrs. Michael Strelch, Mrs. Walter Cason, Mrs. Ben Anderson, Mrs. Clayton Bowen, Mrs. Donald Bryant, Gregory Gordon, Robert Wilson and John McVey.

Most surprised of all was Mrs. J. W. Crew whose mother, Mrs. Allen Rush, was flown here from Amesbury, Mass., to appear on the show. It was the first time they had seen each other in six years and Mrs. Rush's first visit with her infant granddaughter, Carol Ann.

Riviera

Father was King! With little crowns for nameplates, fathers of Riviera PTA were invited to share their hobbies on Jan. 15 at the general meeting.

Menomni tribe of Y Indian Guides presented the colors and led the flag salute. Joe Wilcox of the Torrance YMCA spoke on a pack trip in the Sierra and showed colored slides.

Mrs. Wilson's eighth grade exhibited a history of Torrance and their senior girls had their sewing on display. The senior boys showed off their workshops.

Mrs. Sparks and Mrs. Oswald were ratified by the membership as delegate and alternate to the Torrance Council nominating committee.

The Bicycle Club will meet at the school Jan. 25. Mrs. Buff Meeks will instruct the seventh and eighth grade dances on Jan. 17 and 24. Mmes. Tymstra and Melstrom are raising the money to pay expenses.

Class picture, a successful project of last year, will be repeated in February.

Mrs. Wilson's room won the attendance prize, the privilege of using the viewmaster this month.

Parkway

"The Roaring Twenties," a designer's fashion show extraordinary featuring professional models in new and old silhouettes of the '20s, highlights the Feb. 26 PTA program, according to Mrs. Paul Bergarabedian, chairman of the event.

Place is San Pedro Hacienda at 301 S. Western Ave. An 11 a.m. social hour will precede lunch at 12 noon with the show scheduled to begin promptly at 1:30 p.m.

Mrs. George Cokas, Hollywood Riviera, is handling arrangements for appearance of the models and clothes to be shown. These include hats, lingerie, swim suits and dresses. Featured also will be the appearance of a Charleston dancer, Mrs. Paul Stevens will handle the commentary for the show.

As a special added attraction during afternoon intermission Mrs. Arthur Griebel will entertain, presenting the song stylings and attire of Helen Morgan—complete with piano background.

LOCAL PTA ACTIVITIES

Carl Steele

"Eroken Arrow" will be the film shown at Carl Steele on Feb. 8. Mrs. Robert Golden, ways and means chairman for the PTA, announced that the policy of two performances each week will continue one show at 10:30 a.m., the other at 1 p.m.

Parliamentarian Mrs. Jack Erving held a meeting of the by-laws committee in her home and several recommendations were suggested. These recommendations will be presented to the executive board on Thursday, Feb. 6, for approval and at the next association meeting for final adoption. Members of the committee are Mmes. Allen Beresford, Donald Coleman, Albert Hawkins, Howard Thompson and Archie Macaulay, who represented the principal, R. K. Petrat.

Carl Steele PTA meeting was held Thursday with Mrs. A. D. Hawkins, president, in charge. Guest speakers were Miss Lucienne Elshout, an exchange student from Brussels, Belgium, and Miss Marjorie Towle, a Torrance student who spent the summer in Sweden under the exchange program. The girls discussed the differences in the school systems and life in general in the different countries and answered questions from the floor at the conclusion of their talks. Mrs. John Melville, AFS chairman, spoke briefly of the American Field Service and explained methods followed in the selection of students under the exchange program.

Social studies through the school was the topic of the student participation. Miss Patricia Moore acted as mistress of ceremonies and spoke of the aims of the social studies program. Projects made by members of the first, fourth, fifth, sixth, and seventh grades were on display and the following students spoke on the phase which their particular classes were studying: first graders Stewart Diekel, Bobby Epstein, and Vicky Coleman presented a study of the school itself. Farm life was discussed by first graders Paul Hyman, Leslie Erving, and Alan Morrill.

A trip through space was the object of Eddie Wilson and Mike Wood, also members of the first grade. Fourth graders Arnold Edner, Donald Gear, and Larry Aust presented facts about the timber industry of California.

The natural resources of the state is the topic of study for one fifth grade class and was explained by Lynn Koster, Bruce Winther, Dickie King, and Marsha Berry.

Murals and a scale model of the colonial village illustrated life in a Colonial America. Sheldon Edner, Dana Marshall, Sharilyn Rose, Leslie Lane and Alan Worthington, members of a fifth grade class, discussed the projects. Sixth grade students, Jerry Roberts, Shirley Lloyd, and Glen Garrod presented a base relief map to illustrate their studies on the geography of Canada. Finally a comparison of some of the world governments was given by seventh graders Ricky McGinty, Karen Cooper, and Anita Stewart.

A nominating committee of the following members was elected: Mrs. Coleman, Golden, Freeman, Greene, Lansing, Gray, and Thompson.

The pre-school committee of Carl Steele PTA, headed by Mrs. Robert Walker met recently to arrange for the kindergarten estimate project. This survey is being made at the request of R. K. Petrat, principal, to ascertain the number of children eligible to enter kindergarten in the fall.

A door-to-door campaign will be staged by the following: Mmes. Leon Kagan, Loren Scheele, Henry Rix, Clifford Lane, Allen Beresford, Warren Steele, Leo Fischer, James

Woodford, and Howard Thompson.

Parliamentarian, Mrs. Jack Erving, met with the nominating committee and read the duties as stated in the by-laws. After reading the by-laws and answering question, Mrs. Erving retired and the committee elected Mrs. Howard Thompson, chairman and Mrs. Donald Coleman, secretary.

Mrs. Robert Golden, ways and means, reminds all parents and students that the Saturday movie program started Feb. 1, with the showing of "Courage of Lassie."

South High

A tour of the new South High School will be the feature of the first regular meeting of the South High PTA to be held Tuesday, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m.

The tour will be preceded by a short business meeting and a program to be presented by the South High faculty. The meeting and program will be held at Newton Elementary School where groups will be formed under faculty leadership to proceed to South High.

Following the tour refreshments will be served in the South High staff room. Acting as hostesses will be the area representatives under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schrauben.

Future plans of South High PTA include a dessert tea to be held at the new Polynesian restaurant in February. Entertainment will be provided by Samoan dancers and singers. Tickets for this event will be available at the meeting.

The executive board of South High PTA has begun a membership enrollment which is to culminate at the next association meeting Tuesday, Feb. 4. Mrs. J. N. Hawkins is in charge of the enrollment and has sent letters to all parents of South High pupils. Area directors and student assistants will contact the parents individually.

Representatives who may be contacted to answer questions or collect the membership money are: Pacific Hills, Mrs. Thomas Simpkins; Walteria, Mrs. Hector Herrera; Hollywood Riviera (upper), Mrs. John Wallace; Hollywood Riviera (lower), Mrs. W. R. Blakeney.

Parkway, Mrs. E. W. Phillips; Seaside, Mrs. Clayton Hirtle; Seaside, Mrs. Eldon Sellmeyer; Hillside, Mrs. Robert Krout; Sepulveda, Mrs. Hubert Bailey; Meadowpark, Mrs. R. C. Hoetger, Jr. and Mrs. G. T. Costa; Anza, Mrs. William Salby, and Ellenwood, Mrs. David Schenk.

At the last executive board meeting held at Mrs. David Sokoloff's home, Mrs. Albert Yackie was nominated to the nominating committee of PTA council and Mrs. Hawkins was nominated as representative to the Torrance coordinating council for South High PTA. Mrs. Donald Hauser gave a report on the dental health meeting and stated that anyone interested is asked to attend the meetings held the first Wednesday of each month at the Torrance Board of Education building.

Dr. W. B. Magner spoke of the cooperation extended by the teachers and staff in contributing their free time to get the high school ready for use the first day after vacation.

Donations toward the milk fund and for the graduation party were approved by the board. Mrs. Sokoloff announced that Colonel Buck of the South Bay Area of Civil Defense is requesting the services of a woman in this area to head a women's division of Civil Defense.

Woodford, and Howard Thompson.

Parliamentarian, Mrs. Jack Erving, met with the nominating committee and read the duties as stated in the by-laws. After reading the by-laws and answering question, Mrs. Erving retired and the committee elected Mrs. Howard Thompson, chairman and Mrs. Donald Coleman, secretary.

Mrs. Robert Golden, ways and means, reminds all parents and students that the Saturday movie program started Feb. 1, with the showing of "Courage of Lassie."

HOWARD WOOD

A children's magic show will be presented by the Howard Wood PTA on Saturday, Feb. 8, at the school cafeteria at 2250 235th St. Two shows are planned, the first at 10 a.m. and the second at 11 a.m.

The magician will be aided by his animal and bird assistants and will include "Journey Into Space," "Homer, the Invisible Rabbit," "Plumes of Bengal," "Oriental Dove Mystery," "Screen Test," with other feats of magic.

Tickets will be sold by Mmes. Hiro Muranaka and C. W. Strahm, while ushers will be Mmes. Dana Houston, Lee Polick, Edwin Smith, Cleo McComas and P. M. Crossman.

Plans for the event were on the agenda of the executive board meeting which was held on Jan. 30.

Walteria

An easier way for parents and teachers to become better acquainted was demonstrated at the January meeting of the Walteria PTA. The parents were seated informally at tables bearing the names of their child's teacher, with the teacher serving as host at the table reserved in his or her name. This was an interesting introduction to a pleasant informative meeting brought to order by President, Mrs. J. J. Lawlor. Den 8 of the Cub Scout Pack 240-C presented the colors and led the pledge of allegiance.

The business meetings was an important one with the nominating committee for the 1958-59 year elected. Serving on the committee are Mrs. L. M. Baxley, chairman, and Mmes. R. Schrauben, Loring Bigelow, F. Howe, and principal, Don Mullaney.

A delegate for Torrance PTA council was also elected. She is Mrs. L. D. Mahin. Alternate delegate is Mrs. J. J. Lawlor.

Mrs. L. M. Baxley, health and dental health chairman, introduced the program for the evening which dealt with the vital subject of "Fluoridation." A film titled, "A Drop in a Bucket," was shown to give those present understanding of the benefits of fluoridation. Following the film, Mrs. Baxley introduced the guest speaker for the evening, Dr. Allen Hoffenberg, dentist, who is chairman of the Committee on Fluoridation of the Committee of Dental Health of Southern California.

A panel discussion followed this introductory speech with Dr. Hoffenberg, Reid Bundy, editor of the Torrance Herald and president of Dental Health Assn. of Torrance, and J. Schoonover, active civic leader who has served as president of the Pacific Hills Home Owner's Assn.

Edison

Edison PTA will hold a Founders' Day Assn. meeting at the Edison School cafeteria on Wednesday evening, Feb. 5, at 7:30 p.m. Arrangements for baby sitting are made. The program will include a dental health demonstration by the third grade students from Mrs. Thomas' class and a panel by the Future Teachers' Club of North Torrance High.

Beth Giebeler will be moderator of the student panel composed of Judy Arozian, Janice Hofman, Anne Kirner, Lolita Lao and Jim Van De Vort. Mr. C. Scherf, North High teacher, is the group's sponsor. Entertainment will be furnished by "the Recorders," a musical group directed by Arthur Stillwell. Refreshments will be served at the conclusion of the meeting by the fourth grade room mothers.

THE TRICKS OF MAGIC . . . A magic show to be staged at the Howard Wood School on Saturday, Feb. 8, is being advertised by Celan McComas and Kurt Smith, Howard Wood students, as Mrs. Clo McComas looks on. There will be two shows, one at 10 a.m. and another at 11 a.m.

FOREST LAND Forests cover almost one-third of Montana's area.
47 YEARS OLD The U. S. Bureau of Mines is 47 years old this year.
6 RESERVATIONS There are six Indian reservations in South Dakota.
